FROM THE JEKYLL ISLAND ARTS ASSOCIATION
PEACE ON EARTH GOOD WILL TO ALL...
HAPPY HOLIDAYS!
MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT...

Caryl Rice

Good-by 2020…

This has been a year for the record books.

- No March Arts Festival
- Goodyear closed for 2 and a half months
- Instituted new Covid safety measures for desk volunteers
- Recruited volunteers willing to come to Goodyear to sell artwork for members
- Reopened in June when Jekyll Island reopened
- Kept the doors open with a smaller crew of dedicated volunteers

Merry Artists is in full swing with artist demonstrations and Secret Santa Shopping for kids. The potters had great sales the first Saturday in December at their outside sales area. The inside displays are spaced out to allow more social distancing for shoppers. The landing, second floor hallway, and two end rooms were added for additional shopping space. Our total sales for 2020 so far are only $3881.00 behind 2019. Things are looking positive for the future.

- We are having a great and safe Merry Artists in spite of Covid
- We are moving forward with hope and determination to face the new year.

I hope you are all healthy and hopeful as well.

Sincerely,
Caryl Rice, President, JIAA
